

WINTER CARNIVAL 2010
February 8-12

OVERALL THEME: “The Olympics the Way They Should Be”

DRESS UP DAYS
Related to the new Olympics!

MONDAY: PJ Day (Because sleeping is a new Olympic Sport)
TUESDAY: SPORTS WEAR Day (Because all sports are in the new Olympics)
WEDNESDAY: TWIN Day (Because we want to double the fun and double the wins)
THURSDAY: BAD FASHION Day (Because dressing oddly is new Olympic Sport)
FRIDAY: CLASS COLORS Day (Because teams wear common uniforms)
Seniors = Dark Blue; Jrs = Red; Sophs = White; Frosh = Light Blue

CEILING TILE COMPETITION: The topic is “The Maine Olympics 2010” cleverly using the school mascot engaged in 1 Olympic-like activity unique to Maine. Painting will be supervised after school Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday in the Tech Area. Judging will be Friday morning.

LIVE ESPN BROADCAST at FRIDAY’S ASSEMBLY: Each class will create a new Olympic Sport and broadcast a competition. Mention of training routine, rules and uniforms should be included.

GAMES AND ACTIVITIES BEFORE AND AFTER SCHOOL: A variety of games will be offered in classrooms and a variety of intramural activities will be offered in the gym Monday through Thursday. There will be a variety of competitions during the period 4 Winter Carnival Assembly.

MOVIE TRAILER THURSDAY: Each class will create a “Movie Trailer” for a movie that celebrates the life of a great Olympian in a new Winter Olympic sport in 2030.

WINTER CARNIVAL SEMI-FORMAL: Friday, February 12, from 7-11:00pm. $5 per person. Professional DJ. Appropriate dress is required as is a signed “Guest Pass” for any student not currently a student at Oak Hill. Only those in grades 9 and above can attend. This is a fundraiser for the OHLA Holiday Baskets. Thanks for being there!
